

Huawei Technologies (Bangladesh) Ltd.

Position : Senior Public Affairs Specialist

Job Responsibilities

- This position needs to maintain the relations and support the company business development objectives involving local public affairs. Support company business development by working with related authorities and entities.
- Leads the communications and interactions, which aligns with company business strategies. Capable of solving escalated issues arising from the functional area of responsibility and requiring coordination with other departments.
- Maintaining the sustainable relationship of the functional area of responsibility. Insight and analyse various industry policies align with company business development
- Establishing or Executing or Following the necessary public affairs cooperation programmes to meet the company objectives as agreed with the Senior Management and regularly reviewed.
- Respond to the requests from company management and other department for assistance with public affairs issues.

Employment Status: Full-time

Educational Requirements

- A Bachelor's degree or above in Communications, Public Relations, Political Science, or Business are preferred.

Experience Requirements

- At least 10 years of experience in related field. Telecommunications or ICT field experience is preferred.

Additional Requirements

- Exceptional strategic thinking and market planning capabilities, with strong business acumen and opportunity insight.
- Demonstrated ability to work collaboratively in diverse, cross-functional teams.
- Excellent interpersonal, communication, and negotiation skills; ability to influence and inspire internal teams and external stakeholders.
- Strong resilience, adaptability, and the ability to thrive in a high-pressure, fast-paced environment.
- Passion for innovation, sustainability, and making a positive impact in the energy transition.

Apply Procedure

Apply Online

Application Deadline: June 30, 2026